- I. Suffering, affliction, persecution, tribulation, and trouble are part of the Christian life.
 1. Sometimes God delivers His children from these difficulties.
 2. At other times God allows us to experience them for various reasons.

 - A. God is our Saviour, not only eternally, but also temporally.
 - B. When and why God allows us to suffer and doesn't deliver us from it.
 - C. Examples of when God doesn't even deliver His children from death.
 - D. Three possibilities of how judgment will be meted out to a nation.
 - E. Biblical examples of God either delivering a people for the righteous among them or delivering the righteous alone.
 - F. Having hope because of past deliverances, both Biblical and personal.
